

Frequently Asked Questions from the Virtual Camp Kickoffs

1. Where can I find the Leader's Guides and other camp informational materials?
  - a. All camp materials can be found on our website at www.wfbsa.org/camping. For any items specific to COVID-19 and camp operations can be found at <https://wfbsa.org/camping/camp-covid-19/>

2. Will masks be required at camp?
  - a. In accordance with state and CDC guidelines, masks will be required at camp in any form of indoor setting and where social distancing of at least 6 feet is not possible. This will be monitored and enforced in all camp operated areas (program areas, dining hall, trading post, etc.) by the camp staff and administration. All unit areas (campsites, showerhouses, etc.) will be monitored and policed by the unit leadership.

3. If we paid our $25 site fee last year but did not attend camp. Do we have to pay that again?
  - a. If your unit did not attend camp in 2020, the $25.00 site reservation fee will need to be paid again when reserving a site.

4. How will meals be handled this coming year?
  - a. Meals will be served within the guidelines permitted under state and CDC restrictions. The camps initial meal plans are as follows:
    - i. Camp Conestoga- Breakfast will be served cafeteria style in the Robinson Dining Hall during a specific time window which is to be determined at a later time. Lunch will be served as it was in 2020 where units will send representatives to the Dining Hall to pick up their food. The meal will then be taken back to the unit campsite and served and consumed there. Dinner will be served in camps traditional fashion of family style, pending lifted restrictions.
    - ii. Camp Buck Run- All meals will be served cafeteria style during designated times which will be announced at a later date. Units will be provided with 2-3 location options for eating to maximize social distancing.
