2023 Prerequisites for Eagle Camp Merit Badges

Citizenship in the Community:

- 3a. Attend a meeting of your city, town, or county council or school board; OR attend a municipal, county, or state court session.
- 3b. Choose one of the issues discussed at the meeting where a difference of opinions was expressed and explain to your counselor why you agree with one opinion more than you do another one.
- 4b. With your counselor's and a parent's approval, interview one person from the branch of government you identified in requirement 4a. Ask what is being done about this issue and how young people can help.
- 7c. With your counselor's and your parent's approval, contact the organization you chose for requirement 7b, and find out what young people can do to help. While working on this merit badge, volunteer at least eight hours of your time for the organization. After your volunteer experience is over, discuss what you have learned with your counselor.

Citizenship in the Nation:

- 5. Watch the national evening news for five days in a row or read the main stories in a national media organization (e.g., a newspaper or news website) for five days in a row. Discuss the national issues that you learned about with your counselor. Choose one issue and explain how it affects you, your family, and community.

Citizenship in the World:

None

Personal Management:

- 2a. Do the following: (a) Prepare a budget reflecting your expected income (allowance, gifts, wages), expenses, and savings for a period of 13 consecutive weeks.
- 2b. Compare expected income with expected expenses.
1. If expenses exceed income, determine steps to balance your budget.
 2. If income exceeds expenses, state how you would use the excess money (new goal, savings).
- 8a. Write a "to do" list of tasks or activities, such as homework assignments, chores, and personal projects, that must be done in the coming week. List these in order of importance to you.
- 8b. Make a seven-day calendar or schedule. Put in your set activities, such as school classes, sports practices or games, jobs, or chores, and/or Scout or place of worship or club meetings, then plan when you will do all the tasks from your "to do" list between your set activities.
- 8c. Follow the one-week schedule you planned. Keep a daily diary or journal during each of the seven days of this week's activities, writing down when you completed each of the tasks on your "to do" list compared to when you scheduled them.

Communications:

None

Family Life:

- 2. List several reasons why you are important to your family and discuss this with your parents or guardians.

3. Prepare a list of your regular home duties or chores (at least five) and do them for 90 days. Keep a record of how often you do each of them.
4. With the approval of your parents or guardians, decide on and carry out a project that you would do around the home that would benefit your family.
5. Plan and carry out a project that involves the participation of your family. After completing the project, discuss the following with your merit badge counselor:
 - a. The objective or goal of the project
 - b. How individual members of your family participated
 - c. The results of the project
- 6b. Prepare a meeting agenda that includes the following topics, review it with your parents or guardians, and then carry out one or more family meetings:
 - (1) How living the principles of the Scout Oath and Scout Law contributes to your family life
 - (2) The greatest dangers and addictions facing youth in today's society (examples include use of tobacco products, alcohol, or drugs and other items such as debts, social media, etc.)
 - (3) Understanding the growing-up process and how the body changes, and making responsible decisions dealing with sex
 - (4) Personal and family finances
 - (5) A crisis situation within your family
 - (6) The effect of technology on your family
 - (7) Good etiquette and manners Discussion of each of these subjects may carry over to more than one family meeting.

Note: If you can't get all prerequisites done ahead of time, please let Eagle Camp's Scoutmaster know & they will help to the best of their ability!
